

Izzy the Helpful SuperHero
by Esme

Once upon a time there was a helpful superhero called Izzy. Izzy was super-kind and super-friendly. Izzy's superpowers were super-strength, super-speed and super-flying. She used her super-litter-picker to keep the oceans clear of rubbish.

Izzy's super friends were called Helpfulman (his real name was Joshua) and Supernicewoman (her real name was Abigail). And Izzy's other friend was Superhug and her real name was Ada.

The baddie was called Superevilman. His real name was Daniel. He was really, really evilspeedy. When he ran super-fast he made a horrible noise that was Hahahahahaha! And he never stopped at stop signs and ran beside cyclists and gave them frights until the police came.

Daniel was using his superevilsped to throw rubbish into the ocean so fast that nobody could catch him. The ocean was filling up with rubbish and the sea creatures had nowhere to swim.

Izzy had a supersecret power. It was ocean camouflage. Izzy swam in her ocean camouflage and Daniel couldn't see her. Superhug was poorly so she couldn't come but Helpfulman and Supernicewoman came to help. They were flying. They couldn't keep up with Superevilman but they kept chasing and chasing and didn't give up and they chase him to where Izzy was hiding under the water.

Izzy jumped out of the water and took off her ocean camouflage. Daniel was so startled that he stopped on the spot. "How did you do that?" said Daniel.

While he was standing there Superhelpfulman and Supernicewoman caught up. "You've got nowhere to run now" they said. The superfriends knew someone who could help Daniel be good. They took him to see Superhug. Izzy told Daniel "you must not throw rubbish into the sea." Daniel thought about it until Superhug gave him a big hug. Daniel felt happy and then he said "I would like to be a superhero and help people feel better. Can I be your friend?" Izzy and her friends said yes and Izzy gave Daniel his own super litter picker and he used it to clean up the ocean.

The Girl and the Monster

By Lyra

One frosty morning a little girl tiptoed out of bed and went through the gate and wandered away. Things moved all around her. She was excited. Crick, crick!

She stepped on a twig. She crept into the forest that she has never known what was inside. There she saw a mushroom, one with red and white spots. Then she saw a shell. In that shell she saw the tip of a shoe. The shoe belonged to a fairy!

The fairy screamed when she saw the girl. Then another fairy appeared. The girl told the fairy what she was looking for. And what she was looking for was a magical gem for her mother's birthday. And the fairy told her where to find the magical gem. She had to go through the cave and what was inside that cave was a monster!

But she was brave, she was ready to face the monster. She walked through the forest until she reached a mountain. The fairy told her the cave was at the top. She reached the top, crept in then a showdown appeared. It was a monster.

But the monster wasn't mean at all. He was actually kind.

"Please can I have the gem?" asked the girl.

"Errr ...OK!" said the monster.

So the girl got the gem and ran back home ready for her mummy's birthday.

Slippy the Fish
by Isaac

It was a dark and stormy Tuesday. Slippy the fish was in the cave where he found the crocodile skeleton from series 2. He went to the cave and found so many jewels that he had to take them home bit by bit, bit by bit, bit by bit. He put the jewels on the shelves, then he went to bed. Next morning he woke up and went to the shelves and they were gone! He looked in the garden; there they were! How did they get there? A ghost from a haunted house. He saw it pop out of the chimney! He got his jewels and put them back on the shelves.
